ABOUT ME

My professional orientation; My professional area is about .Net technology. I can develop software for desktop, web and mobile platforms using C# language and .Net libraries. In the database area, I can design, develop, write queries with T-Sql, and perform database operations using mssql and mysql. Generally; I am a person who constantly improves himself and follows technology. I enjoy writing code and this makes me. I am disciplined, harmonious and prone to teamwork. My bilateral relations are strong. I know how to help and ask for help if needed. I do not refrain from sharing my knowledge and at the same time I am not afraid to learn from someone who knows.
